

Did'ja Know?

Samaria was the country between Galilee and Judea. Samaritans were Jews, but had a different way of understanding their religion than Galileans or Judeans.

In Jesus' time, men and women who were not married usually did not speak to one another. We're glad Jesus did here though!

John 4

Jesus met a woman at a well. "Can I have a drink?" he asked.

The woman frowned. "You're a Jew. I'm a Samaritan. We're not supposed to share cups."

Jesus smiled. "If you knew who I was, you would ask me for living water."

"What's living water?" she asked.

"Special water from God's own Spirit that fills your spirit." Then Jesus told her that the time was coming when everyone would worship God together, whether they were Jews or Samaritans or anyone else.

"I know God's promised messiah is coming, who will teach us about God in a whole new way," the woman said.

"I am he," Jesus answered.

The woman got so excited she left her jar and ran home to tell the people that the real messiah was here for everyone!

Living Water

Can be the water of baptism, but it's also God's Holy Spirit living inside you.
