Bread of Life

John 6

Jesus told the crowds, "I am the bread come down from heaven."

Someone grumbled, "What does he mean he came down from heaven?"

Another one said, "I know his mom and dad. He was born the same way as everyone else."

Jesus heard them talking. "I know it seems strange," he said, "but I'm not just the person you knew as a kid. God sent me to show God's love to all people."

"But you were just a normal kid," the first one said.

"I can't imagine you being different now," said the other.

"God sent me for a very special reason. Anyone who believes in me will live forever with God."

The two people shrugged. They just didn't get it. But God loved them anyway.
