

Did'ja Know?!

Some churches have a special day or service for foot washing!

Use a light-colored marker to pretend to "wash up" the different feet you see! Draw another foot to clean, too!

Jesus Washes
Feet

John 10

Jesus knew he was going to die soon, and before he left his friends, he wanted to show them how they were to care for each other. That evening, he wrapped a towel around his waist and filled a big bowl with water. "I am going to wash your feet," he told his friends.

"No way!" they said. "That's a job for servants to do!"

Jesus smiled. "Exactly. I did not come to earth to be a tyrant king and order everyone around. I came here to serve."

Peter frowned. "But you're our teacher and our master!"

"Yes, Peter," Jesus answered. "So if your teacher and master can serve you, then you can serve others, no matter who they are."

Jesus friends nodded. They would remember what Jesus showed them.

Nice Quote!

The purpose of life is not to be happy. It is to be useful, to be honorable, to be compassionate, to have it make some difference that you have lived and lived well.

– Ralph Waldo Emerson
Poet, Author

Try it At Home

When you get home, fill up a bathroom sink. (Don't forget to shut off the water!) Then, put in a washcloth, a brush, and a sponge. See which cleans your hands the best! Report to a friend.
